Must be signed and attached to the club application.

RULES OF CONDUCT: Effective July 19th, 2021 (updated July 2022)

The Forestburgh Senior Club Inc. exists solely and strictly for the social interaction and personal enjoyment of leisure/entertainment/educational activities of the membership. As such, members are required to treat one another with respect and to conduct themselves appropriately during meetings and activities. No arguing, harassment or challenges to the administration will be tolerated. New members will be on probation for one year to establish "good standing" and will then have voting rights along with the general membership provided all rules have been adhered to. The Core Membership is the foundation of the club and performs all administrative functions and issues all decisions without exception.

Any member whose actions, whether at a club event or not, disrupt or impede the membership or individual member from enjoying the benefits of the club by attempting to interfere with the club's mission, structure, organization, operation, funding or activities shall automatically forfeit their good standing and any benefit of the club (meetings, activities etc.) will no longer be available to them.

Each member must sign these RULES OF CONDUCT in order to attain and maintain their membership in good standing.

I, _____, agree to abide by the aforementioned rules and I understand that violating them will result in automatic revocation of my membership. Dated ____/____/_____
